New/Old Business

- a. Progress Update on mini-education sessions to provide information about Ryan White Services (conduct/participate in 5 sessions)
 - i. Support Groups – Feedback, Sharron Harris reviewed the input from the mini- education sessions by projecting a power point presentation. Six (6) mini-sessions and the Community forum were all included in the feedback results. The top 5 Service categories identified from the mini-education sessions:
 - a. 1. OAHS,
 - b. 2. Med. Trans.,
 - c. 3. Dental,
 - d. 4. MCM,
 - e. 5. Pyscho-social Support.The group had a discussion around the diagnosis and care of newly diagnosed. Mentors/peers need to share their experiences to help the newly diagnosed know a healthy life and going back to work is possible.
 - ii. Other type of events – Consumer Forum Feedback
 - iii. Brainstorming ideas for the mini education sessions – It was recommended that PC members better explain what EFA covers during discussions about funded services at the mini-education sessions; also explain that not all providers are funded to provide this service. The committee also agreed to create a mini forum focused on addressing the problem of stigma.
- b. Monitor Committee work plan for compliance – This item was tabled, due to lack of time.
- c. Progress update on Statewide Needs Assessment – The committee recommended the following locations for the focus group sessions to submit to Grantee Representative (Vino):
 - Circle health* – Eastside
 - Saint Augustine Manor* – Westside
 - Signature Health* – Ashtabula or possibly in Painesville
