

Bruce Richman, founder of the Prevention Access Campaign &
Undetectable = Untransmittable
will be speaking at two free events
in Cleveland on Wednesday, January 23, 2019.

At noon, a luncheon conversation with Bruce for people living with HIV will be held at St. Augustine Manor, 7801 Detroit Avenue, Cleveland.
Free parking/RTA tickets provided.

Later that evening, a public event open to all will be held at the CWRU Tinkham Veale University Center, 11038 Bellflower Road, Cleveland.

A reception with refreshments begins at 5:30 pm;
program begins at 6:30 pm.

Free parking/RTA tickets. See directions on back of flyer.

RSVPs requested for both events. To RSVP and for questions please contact Bob Bucklew at 216-844-2247 or at rob2@case.edu

Sponsored by the AIDS Funding Collaborative, Cleveland Department of Public Health, Cuyahoga County Board of Health Ryan White Program and the Case Western Reserve/UH AIDS Clinical Trials Unit.