Questions & Answers:

Q1. Who are the groups that weren’t mentioned or left out of the original advisory groups?

A1. The community felt that there were some groups left out that included individuals living with HIV, LGBTQ, men of color, MSM of color, youth and injection drug users.

Q2. How many proposals do we anticipate receiving?

A2. We are not sure at this time.

Q3. Are past bids available to view that were accepted in past years?

A3. Yes, there are but none from the EHE program, but from other programs. They can be viewed by a public records request.

Q4. Is there any information on what specific demographics were included in the engagement process?

A4. All of this information is available in the EHE Plan, including advisory members.

Q5. Are there any other RFPs in the coming year?

A5. Yes, we have one more related to testing and it is available right now.
